The Kolbe Talent Pack and Management Module combine assessments, analytical reports, and coaching support in a program designed to elevate team performance. Using this proven two-step system, managers can identify and leverage the instinctive strengths of individual team members to increase productivity, improve communication and maximize group effort.

First, assess your team with the Talent Pack:

The Kolbe A™ Index measures an individual's instinctive strengths.

The Kolbe B™ Index identifies an individual's perceptions of job requirements.

Then, drive higher performance with the Management Module:

The Kolbe C™ Index identifies a manager's requirements for success in a job role.

Customized analytical reports detail team strengths.

Coaching and consultation with a Kolbe Corp consultant ensures sustainable results.
